

Mexican Wolf Recovery Program Website

<http://www.ifw2es.fws.gov/wolf>

Educators

Thank you for inquiring about the Mexican Wolf Recovery Program. In addition to educational materials available in hard copy we invite you and your students to visit our web site.

There is a wide variety of information available on the Mexican Wolf Home Page. The following is a sample of what can be found on the Web Site.

Welcome message from the recovery leader

Dave Parsons provides an overview of the reintroduction effort and highlights the successes and some of the challenges.

Notes from the Field

News briefs from the field chronicle the most current information about the Mexican wolves in the release areas.

Project Updates

Information compiled quarterly provides updates on all aspects of the Mexican Wolf Recovery Project.

Kids Home Page

Contains the Mexican Gray Wolf Fact sheet and Mexican Gray Wolf Quiz for kids.

If you are interested in obtaining the educational activity packet (available in English or Spanish) for teachers or borrowing the “wolf trunk” please call 505/248-6662.

For further information:

U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service
Mexican Wolf Program
P.O. Box 1306
Albuquerque, NM 87103
505/248-6662